

Our profession has been given a sacred trust.

*Our libraries—no matter
how large or small,
be it a university, college,
seminary, theologate,
monastery, high school,
grade school, parish,
hospital, prison
or public library—
are Sacred Palaces,
they are Temples.*

*Our work,
our profession,
our vocation
is a sacred,
priestly ministry.*

*All of our patrons are royalty,
nobility—
we are privileged to serve them.*

Kenneth O'Malley, C.P.

Catholic Library World

---

20

Librarianship As A Sacred Trust

---

22

E-Courses: Tailoring Courseware to Fit Our Small Library

---

27

Library Connections: Creating Lifelong Learners

---

36

Let's Talk About Books: Radical Change
A Joint Book Discussion

---

40

An Interview with Paul Goble

---

43

Online Newsletters in Academic Libraries

---

